

IDAHO STATE CIVIC SYMPHONY 2010-2011

Tonight we enjoy the last concert of our 75th Season. It has been a remarkable year, full of superb performances that have truly highlighted our Diamond Anniversary.

As one season passes an exciting new season begins, one that promises to live up to our theme...Forces of Nature.

Maestro Chung Park has hand picked music from the masters, including: works by Beethoven, Strauss, Elgar, Debussy, Vivaldi, and more. In addition, some of the finest performers in the country will be here to share their talents with us including: Hornist Gail Williams, 'cellist Edward Arron, the AXIOM Brass Quintet, Met soprano Monica Yunus, violinist Aaron Berofsky, and pianist Rich Ridenour.

Each exciting performance will be enjoyed in the splendor and acoustic wonder of the Jensen Grand Concert Hall.

We owe a debt of gratitude to all of our fine sponsors whose support is so vital to our success year after year. We'd also like to extend a big thank-you to each of you for the generous contributions you make to the Idaho State Civic Symphony.

*The 2010-2011 season promises to be the best ever.
We look forward to enjoying it with you.*
